#houseoftodayscholarship

The House of Today Scholarship Program has been conceptualized for students who showcase exceptional talent. As part of our commitment to nurture aspiring designers, scholarships are awarded to students who hold a Lebanese nationality, and can demonstrate that their chosen graduate or postgraduate program at a reputable Product Design institution would greatly enhance their professional development.

House of Today believes that financial constraints should not hinder talents to grow and thrive. Accordingly, the Scholarship Program aims to assist the most promising students to overcome these constraints and provide them with a platform to realize their full potential. In order to ensure the long-term sustainability of the Scholarship Program, House of Today strongly encourages students to consider reputable public universities and colleges in their selection criteria, as it allows for greater funding support for current and future students.

House of Today, a nonprofit organization, is led by its vision to establish Lebanon as the regional reference in design. The mission of House of Today is to identify, nurture, mentor, curate, showcase and connect emerging Lebanese designers to the global design ecosystem.

To apply to the House of Today Scholarship Program, please fill in this document and send it by email to scholarships@house-of-today.com by June 15th, 2022. House of Today and its selection committee will review your application and the awardees will be announced on July 15th, 2022.

What we expect from you

House of Today Scholarship holder requirements

The House of Today scholarships are awarded to a limited number of designers per year. As such, we expect awardees to make the best out of their academic experience and adhere to the below requirements:

- The candidate must provide complete and correct information that is truthful to the best of their knowledge.
- The House of Today Scholarship awardee is expected to attend all classes and tutorials. Attendance will be monitored, and any student with an unacceptable attendance record may risk the termination of their Scholarship. Exceptions to attendance only apply if the candidate is ill.
- Candidates must maintain a good academic standing throughout their chosen programs.
- Scholarship holders are expected to attend a select number of College and University events, acting as an ambassador of the House of Today scholarship program. This entails promoting the scholarship and its benefits to potential donors, and meeting scholarship supporters at these events, during and after course completion.
- Students who receive a scholarship from House of Today are encouraged to participate in a 'giveback agreement'. This would enable House of Today to continue providing opportunities to future students. The details of the agreement are to be agreed upon between the student and House of Today.
- And of course, the design world is governed by respect. We expect candidates to conduct themselves with respect and dignity.
- House of Today reserves the right to revoke scholarships if the requirements are not met.

Terms of the House of Today Scholarship

Awarded scholarships will be paid directly to the indicated University's Tuition Fees account. Applicants must enroll for their program during the same academic year for which they have applied for funding. If an applicant is unable to do so, for any reason, the Scholarship will be withdrawn. In order to ensure the long-term sustainability of the Scholarship Program, House of Today strongly encourages students to apply to reputable public universities and colleges, as it allows for greater funding support for students, to cover their living expenses abroad. Choosing to enroll in public institutions also enables House of Today to grant more scholarships and provide a wider pool of aspiring students with the opportunity to receive a higher education.

Inform House of Today if you:

- Change your details, such as your name, email, phone number etc.
- Change your university, college or course
- Relocate and have a different home, term-time or parental address
- Become aware that the start or end dates of your course have changed, do not commence with the program, leave your course or are expelled
- Are absent from your course for more than 60 days due to illness
- Are absent for a period of time for any reason other than illness
- Get married
- Have plans to leave the country

We wish you an enriching journey of exploration and growth. Always remember that the design ecosystem thrives when we collaborate and pay it forward.
